

EARTHQUAKES

A Timeline of the Biggest Earthquakes in Recent History

Legend:

- Other
- Chile

9.5 'The Great Chilean Earthquake' in 1960, was the highest magnitude earthquake ever recorded; rating 9.5 on the Moment magnitude scale.

3.0 Magnitude 3.0 earthquakes or lower are largely imperceptible.

7.0 Magnitude 7.0 earthquakes have the potential to cause serious damage over a large area, depending on the depth.